Three Falls Cities Councils Add Seventy-six to Their Ranks.

Father Patrick Monaghan Bears
Congratulatory Message From Bishop.

Mayor Buschmeyer, Father Felten and Others Speak at the Banquet.

GREAT DAY FOR YOUNG MEN

Last Sunday will long live as a memorable day for the Catholic young men of the three Falls Cities, for it marks an era that stands for good citizenship and the uplift of many about to enter upon life's activities. Mackin, Trinity and Unity Councils of this city and New Albany held their joint initiation at Trinity Council Hall, Baxter and Morton avenue, when with instructive and impressive ceremonial the degrees of the Young Men's Institute were conferred on a class numbering seventy-six. The work was performed by the joint degree team and was unsurpassed by any team on similar occasions. Trinity Hall was taxed to its capacity, and the hundreds present were enthralled with the eloquent and forceful address of Rev. Father O'Grady, chaplain of Trinity Council, at the conclusion of the initiatory ceremony which was followed by banquet at the Seelbach, attended by nearly 300.

The banquet was a most elaborate affair, presided over by James B. Kelly as toastmaster, with whom were seated on the right the Rev. Father Monaghan, A. J. Bizot, Eugene J. Cooney, Gustav Weinman, President, and on the left Father O'Grady, and the Rev. Francis Felten, Grand President Robert T. Burke, Grand Secretary F. J. Carroll and George Thornton, President of Mackin Council. Happy in his introductions, Toastmaster Kelly declared the destiny of every community rested in the keeping of the young men of today, who were the city's best asset, and the Young Men's Institute was endeavoring to assist in safeguarding them in their leisure hours.

The Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue was unable to be present, but was represented by the Rev. Patrick Monaghan, who extended the Bishop's expression of regret and congratulation on this auspicious occasion. Father Monaghan commended the spirit of patriotism inculcated by the principles of the Y. M. I. and exhorted his hearers to be always true to God and country. In concluding he wished all success, prosperity and happiness and God's blessing in their walk of life.

Mayor Buschmeyer received an ovation when he was presented as the head of our civil life. Expressing gratitude to the Y. M. I. for the privilege of being present, the Mayor said it was a pleasure to come to the banquet and find such good fellowship. He commended the councils for making their members public benefactors, and thanked God that he had no prejudice against any man because of his religious belief. He realized that all must adhere to the high ideals of Lord Baltimore and Roger Williams. Every young man, he said, should try to improve his mind by reading and study, and in concluding he wished for the local councils continued usefulness and prosperity.

The Rev. Francis Felten, Grand Chaplain, introduced as one of the most earnest workers for the Y. M. I., held the close attention of his hearers, being frequently applauded. Work we must, he said, steadily and continually, to build a good character. The aim and purpose of the Y. M. I. is to form and build up the Christian character and to steer the young man clear from pitfalls and destruction. "The Y. M. I. wants to make us men," he said, "that please to lead to ruin and bankruptcy and that duty leads to success. By that I do not mean that we should have no pleasure at all, but we must make use of it only as a means of achieving something higher. Education is not finished when we leave school. We must go to school all our lives. The Y. M. I. is a school in which we teach the habit of doing our duty. Once rooted in the habit of duty we will become good Christians and good citizens." Father Felten impressed upon his hearers the absolute need of forming what may be called the habit of duty, which no doubt has its trials, but its memories are sweet and its reward never ending.

The value of patriotism was emphasized by Gustav Weinman, of New Albany, who said patriotism was duty to one's country. He said the brotherhood of European nations was shattered because the teaching of Christ, who said "Love thy neighbor as thyself," had been forgotten. He asserted the same patriotism which filled our forefathers was needed in the United States today and that with it we will be able to solve all problems.

Speaking on "The Y. M. I. and Its Relation to Church and Home," Eugene J. Cooney said neither the Catholic church nor the Catholic home needed the Y. M. I., because they were above the need of help from any institution, but the institute, nevertheless, was an aid to both, because it teaches brotherly love, patience, charity and many other things which make a good Christian.

With eloquence and wit Attorney A. J. Bizot urged his hearers to observe neutrality in the way President Wilson suggested. He said every man present was a descendant of those who are now engaged in war in Europe, and not to be neutral would only tend to create ill feeling. "It would be against the teaching of Christ not to be neutral, for he said, 'Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be the children of God.'" He said all should respect the feelings and sympathies of others and expect the same treatment from those who might hold opinions different from theirs.

BISHOP SHAHAN.

With impressive and elaborate ceremony the consecration as Bishop of Monsignor Thomas J. Shahan, President of the Catholic University, Washington, took place at the Cathedral in Baltimore last Sunday. Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop E. F. Prendergast, of Philadelphia, and Archbishop Henry Moeller, of Cincinnati, and many Bishops, Monsignors and clergy of high rank participated in the services. National officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and a delegation of priests from the Hartford diocese of which Bishop Shahan formerly was a member, were present. The elevation of Monsignor Shahan to the exalted dignity of the episcopacy was one of the last and most noteworthy manifestations of the undying love which the lamented Pope Pius X. bore toward the Catholics of the United States, and his deep appreciation of the great work accomplished for religion and education by the Catholic University under the direction of this eminent and scholarly prelate. The consecration of Bishop-elect Shahan was an event of nation-wide interest, for the name of this illustrious educator and writer is not only known from one end of the continent to the other, but ranks foremost as a leader among the great educators of the world. The most distinguished prelates and Catholic educators of the country were gathered in Baltimore to honor him on the day which placed upon his soul the seal of apostolic power and consecration.

SUCCESSFUL MISSION.

A ten days' mission for non-Catholics especially has just been closed at Spurlington, Ky., with the following partial list of successes resulting: Fourteen baptized and received into the church; twenty-eight fallen-away Catholics brought back into the faith; 400 communions received and a large amount of literature distributed to non-Catholics, among which were "Plain Facts for Fair Minds," "The Slime of the Serpent" and the "Question Box." Among the communicants were forty receiving for the first time. The services every evening consisted of the rosary, answers to the questions deposited in the question box, sermon and benediction, these services being attended in large numbers by non-Catholics, many of whom manifested a desire to further inquire into the principles of the Catholic faith. Much good is expected to result, many predicting that it will serve to dispel prejudice and bigotry in that section of the State. The mission was conducted under the auspices of Rev. Father Thomas A. Murray, pastor at Spurlington, and who is also pastor at Campbellsville. Father Murray has many local friends here who are proud of his success, many of whom he became acquainted with when located at St. Cecilia's church as assistant pastor.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

With the approach of the first Sunday in Advent, the day appointed by the Holy See for the annual collection in favor of the Catholic University of America, Cardinal Gibbons and the Board of Directors appeal most earnestly for a continuance of the support which they have given so generously in former years. Without this popular aid, so cordially bestowed, the university would languish and Holy Church would be deprived of an institution which daily grows more useful to her highest interests, and has already earned unqualified praise from those best qualified to appreciate educational progress. The Catholic University is the natural crown of our schools and our colleges, and is alone the logical finish to the system of religious education for which all should be willing to make some sacrifice.

ORPHANS' LINEN SHOWER.

The Sisters and boys of St. Thomas Asylum have arranged a meritorious little programme for the entertainment of friends and visitors to that institution next Thursday, when the annual linen shower takes place. The good Sisters have about one hundred orphan boys under their care, and will be very thankful for donations of bed linen, table linens, hose, etc. The Bardstown road cars are nearest the asylum, and by getting off at Carter avenue the walk is only a short distance.

HOLY TRINITY EUCHRE.

The Ladies' Circle of Holy Trinity church, New Albany, will entertain at Holy Trinity Hall next Tuesday afternoon and evening and have secured many novel and handsome prizes to be awarded during the day. The afternoon euchre will begin at 2:30 and the evening euchre at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be donated to Holy Trinity church fund.

THE PERIL

After a heroic struggle this government was founded upon the principles of Civil and Religious Liberty, but the republic is in deadly peril of having these blood-bought principles set aside by the Roman hierarchy, which from the pope down has avowed its purpose to make America Catholic. This would mean that it would put the church above the state and impose its religion upon all. Thus it would set up in the United States the vast, heartless, soulless papal political system that has cursed every nation in which it has obtained a foothold. It is this deadly peril to American Liberty and civilization which this paper is fighting.

GEO. D. BEASON, Editor.

WILKESBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

Nov. 10, 1914.

Dear Subscriber:-

There is an effort being made to remove THE PERIL from Wilkesboro to Louisville, and I ask you to call at The Ellis Printing Co. your city, at once and see Mr. Hugh Ellis regarding the matter. As a subscriber to the publication I am sure you would like to see it moved to Louisville, which I regard as the best location in the entire United States for the paper. Locating THE PERIL at Louisville will mean much to the patriotic cause in Louisville and the State of Kentucky. It will also mean a great deal to the movement over the entire country, as all sections of the United States can be reached with dispatch from there.

THE PERIL is already a success. The patriotic host like the paper, and are backing it. I ask you to call immediately and see Mr. Ellis, so that arrangements can be completed forthwith for bringing out the next issue of THE PERIL from Louisville. I also ask you to assist in every way you can in bringing this worthy enterprise to your city.

Yours very truly,

GEO. D. BEASON,

Editor, THE PERIL.

The above letter reproduced is self-explanatory, showing that there is a movement on foot by a certain set of bigots to bring this vile and defamatory sheet to Louisville with the purpose of creating religious prejudice between Catholics and their fellow-citizens, the Peril being a strong opponent of that section of the constitution of the United States which guarantees the right of every man to worship God according to the dictates of his conscience, and believes that any citizen aspiring for office should be subjected to a religious test and excluded from office if a Catholic. The Peril does not take into account that a man's religion is purely a personal matter between himself and God, the practice of which concerns a man's most precious possession—his soul. That soul is the gift of his Creator and at the tribunal of God he is answerable alone for his soul. Such publications as the Peril would bring Louisville back to the unfortunate days of which "Bloody Monday" was the climax, resulting in the deterioration of its progress at least twenty-five years, and which is a black mark in our history that will not down. Every good citizen, regardless of creed, should protest against the invasion of Louisville by this sheet with its disturbing and un-American tactics.

ENCYCLICAL

Pope Benedict Pleads For Peace Among Warring European Nations.

Holy Father Declares the Spirit of Christ Does Not Reign Today.

Lack of Reciprocal Charity Causes Lack of Respect For Authority.

POINTS OUT FALSE PRINCIPLE

Associated Press dispatches from Rome bring the news that the Pope caused to be issued on Monday his encyclical urging peace among the warring nations of Europe. In this document the Pontiff attributes the war to four causes, namely lack of mutual and sincere love among men, contempt of authority, injustice on the part of one class of the people against another, and the consideration of material welfare as the sole object of human activity.

The encyclical begins by tracing a horrible picture of the present war, and by calling upon the rulers and the people to end the fratricidal fight in order that the dawn of the new pontificate be blessed by a voice announcing peace throughout the world. The present bloody war is terrible because, the encyclical declares, it is a struggle of souls as well as a struggle of bodies, the souls being the origin of the body. After making reference to the doctrines of Christ the Pope in his communication says:

"The spirit of Christ does not reign today. The people talk today of brotherhood more than they ever have before, yet brotherhood is ignored today to a greater degree than ever before. Nations, races, cities and individuals are divided today by rancor and selfishness more than they are by political frontiers. The lack of reciprocal authority is causing a lack of respect for authority. Love does not alter differences between social classes, but it makes those above inclined toward the humble Christian virtues, most of all with justice, while the humble trust their superiors, awaiting brotherly assistance from them."

The Pope expressed the view that to bring about the desired change it will be necessary to extirpate the secret root of all evils, which he described as the view that material good is the only object of life. The second part of the encyclical is devoted to an appeal for peace within the church. It urges the suppression of all differences, and in particular the extirpation of the "evil growth of modernism, together with the evil modernistic spirit which seeks novelty in everything."

The message expresses the wish for peace among all nations, which will find inestimable good in peace, and also for peace for the church, which will find in it its essential liberty, as well as "cessation of the abnormal state of affairs, whereby the Vicar of Christ is placed in Rome, by reviewing the protest of his predecessors against which condition he is fulfilling his sacred duty."

"The pretense of emancipation of human civil authority from God causes the links between superiors and inferiors to become daily looser," the Pope continues. "Sovereign rulers should consider this, and see whether it is wise to divorce themselves from the religion of Christ, whether it is good policy to banish the gospel from education. The principle that men, being equal in nature, must also be equal socially, is false. Arguments to the contrary fill souls with anger, inspire class hatred and fill life with struggles. The only remedy is to teach the fundamental precept of the gospel, to love each other more."

USEFUL LIFE ENDED.

George G. Recktenwald, one of Louisville's best known citizens and for twenty-six years engaged in the hardware business in the West End, died Wednesday night at his home, 406 North Twenty-sixth street, leaving a wide circle of relatives and friends to mourn his death. Mr. Recktenwald suffered a broken leg and a strained hip in a fall in June, and had been in declining health since then. He was a member of St. Cecilia's church, and took an active part in the work of St. Vincent de Paul Society. He is survived by his father, Michael Recktenwald; two sons, George and Raymond Recktenwald; three daughters, Misses Mary Angela, Loretta, and Elizabeth Recktenwald; four brothers, the Rev. Otto Recktenwald, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Bernard A. Recktenwald, of Pittsburgh; Henry A. and Burkard Recktenwald, of Louisville, and three sisters, Mrs. Joseph Brown, of Trenton, Pa.; Mrs. D. Schuler, and Miss Cecilia Recktenwald, of this city. The funeral was held from St. Cecilia's and was the largest seen in the West End in recent years.

HELP THE POOR.

An entertainment and euchre and lotto party, under the auspices of members of St. Michael's church, will be given in the school hall on Brook street Thursday afternoon and night, the proceeds to go to the help of the poor of the parish. There will be an abundance of refreshments and a good time for all willing to assist this deserving cause.

CANDIDATES

For Democratic Nomination For Governor Being Announced Daily.

Possible Combination Between Fifth District and State Leaders.

Many Announcements For Local Offices Expected After the Holidays.

SLATE FOR STATE OFFICES

Judging from present prospects the largest field of candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor will be in the race by January 1, and it is safe to count on at least five entries when the list is closed. Lieut. Gov. E. J. McDermott has already made his official announcement and the following new entries are expected to make theirs any day: Commissioner of Agriculture Newman, Auditor Henry Bosworth and Attorney General James Garnett, while other possible entries are Senator Johnson Camden, Congressman Owsley Stanley, ex-Secretary of State H. V. McChesney and ex-Mayor W. O. Head. With one of the latter four as a sure starter, and the first named four canvassing right now, the field is sure to be composed of five candidates for the nomination, and no less. Many are of the opinion that the Beckham-Haly politicians have selected their favorite in the above list and it is rumored that either ex-Secretary McChesney or ex-Mayor Head is their choice, while another rumor to the effect that Haly and Beckham are willing to abide by the selection of the politicians and leaders in this district, principally because of Beckham's strong showing in Louisville in the recent election. The selection in this event would probably be Lieut. Gov. McDermott, ex-Mayor Head, Auditor Bosworth or Attorney General Garnett, all of whom have a strong following here. Following the article in the Evening Times, which stated that Mr. McDermott would make a splendid nominee, Henry Watterson, editor of the Courier-Journal, pens the following: "The Courier-Journal says 'ditto' to the Evening Times. Gov. McDermott is an orator and a scholar, but he is more than that; an official learned in affairs; a citizen exemplary and useful in his public and private life, whose advancement from second to first place in the State would insure us both alert and good government at the same time that it would adequately meet the traditions clustered about the great post of Governor of Kentucky. The Courier-Journal has never concerned itself about the filling of the office. But it can tell those who are charmed with that duty that if they take Mr. McDermott they will make no mistake.

State Treasurer Thomas Rhea, who so ably handled the Democratic campaign, will have the support of all sections for Auditor, while Speaker Claude Terrell will probably be unopposed for State Treasurer. It looks that way at this stage, but the other offices are sure to be hotly contested for, and in all probability combinations will be made from the Governor's race down the ticket. As predicted in these columns, the race for Railroad Commissioner will be a three-cornered one. "Billy" Klair, the incumbent, who is a power in Fayette and having many friends here, will be a candidate for reelection, while George B. (Cack) Barrett, of this city, will run, and it is pretty strongly rumored that he will have the backing of Percy Haly and Senator Beckham, both of whom are anxious to even up scores with Mr. Klair, who scored a victory over them in the last contest for the nomination. John S. Newman, Representative from Bardonia, will be the third entry, and he has also a large following to reckon with.

Possible candidates for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judgeships are being mentioned freely, among them being Judge Muir Weissinger, who will contest with Judge Charles T. Ray for the Fourth division. Common Pleas branch Judgeship, while Tyler Barnard, the well known Democratic leader and organizer of the First ward, will enter against Judge James Quarles for the Judgeship in the First division of the Chancery branch. It is also rumored that Arthur Wallace will try for the nomination against Judge W. H. Field in the First division of the Common Pleas branch, and thus far no mention has been made of opposition to Judge Thomas Gordon in the Second division, Judge Walter P. Lincoln in the Third division of the Common Pleas branch, or Judge Samuel B. Kirby, of the Second division of the Chancery branch, these gentlemen being especially strong with the rank and file of local Democracy, and candidates that would be hard to beat in a primary, in addition to being strong assets to the ticket in a general election. In regard to the Criminal division of the Circuit Court it is now believed that Judge James P. Gregory will not be a candidate for re-election, preferring to wait until 1917, when he will be a candidate for Judge Miller's seat in the Court of Appeals. Lorraine Mix, the present Assistant Commonwealth Attorney, is the only one mentioned thus far to succeed Judge Gregory, while Commonwealth Attorney Joe Huffaker will probably be unopposed for renomination.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION.

The first meeting of the Jefferson County Federation of Catholic Societies in the Knights of Columbus hall on Thursday night of last week brought out a splendid attendance, the auditorium being well filled. Dr. Peter S. Ganz presided, and after the regular business had been transacted he introduced the Rev. Cletus Brady, C. P., of the Sacred Heart Monastery, who delivered an eloquent and logical address, pointing out to Catholic laymen of this county their rights under the constitution. Father Brady dwelt at some length on the conditions in Mexico, citing instances of brutality on the part of the revolutionary soldiers that were almost beyond belief. The eloquent Passionist was in excellent voice and his words carried conviction to his hearers. At the close of his address he was tendered a rising vote of thanks, as was also the Rev. Father Julius, who accompanied him. Without a dissenting voice the Federation donated the sum of $100 to the Catholic Church Extension Society. President Ganz read his report of the proceedings of the national convention held in Baltimore, which was full of interest and well received. A special committee, composed of Benedict Elder, John A. Doyle and Jacob Hubbsch, was appointed to draft resolutions protesting against the use of the mails by such papers as the Menace. Following timely talks by Messrs. John Doyle, Louis Borntraeger, Henry Vonderheide and Benedict Elder it was decided to appoint a committee to devise ways and means to raise funds to carry on the work of the Federation. This committee will be named by President Ganz and announced at the next monthly meeting.

IMPRESSIVE OBSERVANCE.

There was an impressive and solemn observance of the Benediction of All Saints last Saturday at Ferdinand, Ind., participated in by the clergy and seminarians of St. Meinrad's Seminary and the Sisters and pupils of the Immaculate Conception Academy. There was a solemn high mass in honor of the thousands of canonized saints, Popes, Bishops, martyrs and educators—which the Benediction orders have given to the church during the fifteen centuries of their existence, at which Albert Thompson, of Louisville, was master of ceremonies, and James Maloney, of this city, was also an assistant.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Catholic University was convened in Washington on Wednesday. Reports submitted were most satisfactory and showed this great Catholic educational institution making steady advancement.

HIBERNIANS

Spend Pleasant Night at Housewarming of the Mother Division.

Lieut. Gov. McDermott Delivers an Eloquent and Inspiring Address.

The Work of the Pioneers and Their Memory Not Forgotten.

DISPENSED IRISH HOSPITALITY

Few events on the calendar of Hibernian affairs in Louisville this year will equal in point of interest, sociability and pleasant memories the housewarming and social session of Division 1, held on Thursday night of last week in the new home in the Liederkrantz Hall building, Sixth and Walnut. Many things conducive to this end, and potent among them was the fact that Lieut. Gov. Edward J. McDermott was to be present and deliver an address to the other three divisions were well represented and found everything that conduces to pleasantness and popularity predominating features. The officers and members of Division 1 have good reason to look back on the success that culminated their work with pardonable pride, and this praise is bestowed without qualification.

President Thomas Tarry occupied the chair, and in opening the evening he welcomed the members and visitors in a most hearty and cordial manner. He announced that the regular order of business would be dispensed with and that at the December meeting the annual reports would be submitted. At this point Lieut. Gov. McDermott arrived, accompanied by Thomas Walsh, and was received with tremendous applause, the many present forming in line to be introduced and shake his hand. In a happy manner President Tarry introduced the County President, William J. Connelly, who was always welcome at the meetings of Division 1. President Connelly found it a duty as well as a pleasure to meet with the Hibernians, but as he had been heard so often he felt inclined not to make speeches in order that the members might not become tired of his talks, being rather in favor of inviting others and hearing various speakers. He congratulated Division 1 on its new movement and home and trusted that this gathering was the forerunner of others and the greater success of the Ancient Order.

Lieut. Gov. McDermott was the next speaker, and after returning thanks for the recognition accorded him he said he had not come to deliver an address, but to have a cordial and heart to heart talk on the benefits of organization and to help the members receive therefrom. He said the friendships here formed are always producing great good and the time the benefit bestowed can never be foretold. In the Ancient Order and like organizations the members are making friends for the future and improving themselves, and for these reasons they should give them earnest support. In a glowing and eloquent tribute to Ireland and the Irish people the Lieutenant Governor declared that the religious prejudice that has existed must pass away because of the bravery of the Irish people and the part they have played. He urged the living of good, clean lives and the right treatment of our neighbors, thus demonstrating true citizenship and loyalty to God and country. The man who is unselfish in this respect, he said, was always the happy man. Organization makes more industrious and better men and is always a source of strength and promotes the spirit of help for our neighbors and fellow men. Touching upon his experience in the Emerald Isle, Gov. McDermott declared that the beauties of Ireland, its valleys, hills and lakes, instill a pride and the hope that Ireland will soon enjoy her full rights and make her laws.

Thomas Keenan, always at home with the Hibernians, was proud that his old schoolmate, the Lieutenant Governor, was present. He reviewed the formation and history of the Ancient Order in Louisville and the work of the pioneers, Matt Curran, Thomas D. Cline, John J. Barrett, John Hennessy, James Rogers, Tim Lyons and others, and the benefits many had derived from membership. Sergeant John Maloney, President of Division 3, found much to be learned in working for the order, and said that as County Vice President he will be active and assist the other divisions.

John Hennessy, Division 4, who was godfather and what is known as kindly green, which would end first place and anxious to grow and grow. Thomas Higgins, Division 5, addressed the assembly and was well received. After a view of the new home, the meeting adjourned. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Catholic University was convened in Washington on Wednesday. Reports submitted were most satisfactory and showed this great Catholic educational institution making steady advancement.

APPRECIATION.

Louisville, November 16, 1914.— Editor Kentucky Irish American—Dear Sir: I wish to express to you my very great appreciation of your article in last week's Kentucky Irish American on the St. Vincent de Paul Society. The article is timely and is admirable from every point of view.
Sincerely yours, JOHN DOYLE, President Particular Council, St.
Vincent de Paul Society.

MARK THEM.

The disturbers and character assassins behind the movement to locate the vile and filthy A. P. A. sheet, the Peri, in Louisville should be singled out and remembered for future use. Several of the leaders are actuated by political motives, as will develop, while for the others in the movement we have nothing but pity, they being among that large class of illiterates for which the moonlight schools are being started.

GIVE YOUR MITE.

Do not observe Thanksgiving in an entirely selfish manner. Give a little thought to those who are unable to provide in decency for the little ones. Contribute your mite to make someone else happy and thus bring to yourself great happiness. Never were appeals more numerous and persistent. It is going to be a hard winter for many on this side of the Atlantic. Every one who can should help the poor, and above all help at home first.

CAN'T DO MUCH.

The "Guardians of Liberty" in Texas have given a strong indorsement to Villa. We are not surprised at that. These so-called guardians of liberty would do on this side of the border what Villa and his fellow bandits are doing on the other—if they could. But the only thing they can do is to indorse Villa.
At any rate Villa has some friends outside administration circles in the United States.

WAITING OFTEN A CRIME.

The Katzenjammer Kids, Villa and Carranza, who have been playing soldier with the Catholic church as the prey in Mexico, have fallen out with each other and are calling for each other's annihilation. What has become of Gen. de la Barra, a decent gentleman, well known to Washington as such, and one of the most capable diplomat? Why does our Government not demand his acceptance of the provisional Presidency with the same insistence that it demanded the withdrawal of Huerta, the lawfully elected President? There is, says the Catholic Advance, only one thing which makes him a persona non grata at Washington. He is a Catholic.

It is a fact, however, that de la Barra would please every Mexican except the robbers. Our Gen.
Funston should be ordered to Mexico City at once while there is a split among the cowardly barbarians who have been ruining the country and set up his headquarters there, as was done in Cuba, until quiet is restored.
This action might unite the villains.
What of it? It would give courage to thousands who would gladly abandon the present predatory belligerents. Other thousands would be glad of a chance to get even with the robbers who have been devastating their properties and outraging their families.

The dispatches say that proclamations are posted up in the City of Mexico demanding the evacuation of Vera Cruz and calling "citizens to arms" in order to purge the country of what is left of religion and turn more churches into dance houses and more schools. This is what the proclamations mean. The two infernal have been "sniping" has been publicly ason once that they every vestige of a country on principles,
or family,
and Washing.

SOCIALISM.

ious in-ous from men who advantage vondam acquireained establish funda-
m. In Germany the Socialist party as one man deserted its principles to aid the Fatherland in its invasion of France. The French Socialists likewise turned their backs upon their platform relating to the "brotherhood of man," and are now haply engaged in fighting their Socialist brothers in the army of Germany.

No dissenting voice was raised in either the Reichstag or the Chamber of Deputies against the proclamation of war. Hitherto the entire appeal of the Socialists has been based upon the abhorrence of warfare and the tyrannical exploitation of men for the gain and advancement of kings and capitalists. In view of the shattering of the Socialistic movement by this unexpected development, we arrive at the conclusion that either the Socialist leaders have all been sycophants and charlatans, deceiving and deceiving their numerous followers for their own aggrandizement or else the fundamental arguments of Socialism are based upon erratic grounds and national patriotism is after all the strongest element in the make-up of man—next to the divine grace of faith. Since it is hardly possible that the millions of Socialists could have been continually deceived by their leaders and admitting the impossibility of a world-wide collusion of the leaders, the conclusion that Socialism, as it has been advanced, has been wholly Utopian and impracticable and that the brotherhood of man begins like charity at home, is the only reasonable one to be drawn from this laying of the spectre of Socialism.
The bitter enemy of the church has received a mortal blow; its antagonism will be henceforth inconsiderable.

Among the first recommendations to the faithful made by the Holy Father is one encouraging the practice of reading the Bible and declaring that the gospel should be read daily in every Christian home.
Hope this comes to the notice of the blessed ones who still believe Catholics are forbidden to read the Scriptures.

In the recent campaign in New York the following is a sample of the literature issued by the Guardians of Liberty and their A. P. A. associates: "To Americans: If you elect an Irish Catholic Governor this year the Jews will demand the same right two years from now. Do you want to be governed by Catholics and Jews?"

Cardinal Mercier, who appeals for aid for the starving Belgians, says the German soldiers are dividing their bread with the children. This does not smack of inhuman treatment and cruelty upon the part of the Kaiser's men.

As a settler of peace in Mexico, John Lind, the President's personal ambassador, proved a sad and miserable failure, not being able to even control his better half's tongue, who stated that the Catholics were at the bottom of his trouble.

Thanksgiving day should indeed be a day of thanks, for two reasons, viz: that we are not embroiled in the world-wide war and that it marks the end of the football season.

There is no change in the Mexican situation, all the bandit factions still maintaining their hostile attitude toward peace and law and order.

CHEERING MESSAGE.

Dr. William B. Doherty this week received word that his son, Dr.
Wm. Brown Doherty, has been promoted from the position of junior to senior assistant in the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary. The in-terne service in this hospital is the longest and most exacting in work and training of any in the United States, and the success of young Dr.
Doherty affords much gratification to his legion of Louisville friends.
The hospital is located in the most congested portion of New York City, which accounts for the fact that over 130,000 patients, entirely eye and ear patients, were treated there last year.

FRIENDS GRIEVE.

The death of Miss Lillie O'Connor, formerly of New Albany, which occurred at her home in St. Louis last Friday morning, was a great shock to her friends, both in New Albany and Louisville, where she visited quite frequently. She was a young girl of beautiful character and amiable disposition, and was loved by all who knew her. She was the daughter of William O'Connor, connected with the Higgins Lumber Company, of St. Louis.

WILLIAM MALONEY.

Another of the older residents of Louisville has passed to his last reward. William Maloney, a retired quarryman and widely known, is dead at the age of seventy-five years.
Almost his entire life had been spent here and was marked by unobscured works of mercy and charity. He was the father-in-law of George Zix, 2036 Frankfort avenue, with whom he made his home, and an uncle of Sergeant John M.
Maloney, of the mounted police.
Surviving him are a son, Thomas Maloney; two daughters, Mrs. Mollie Seaton and Mrs. George Zix; a sister, Mrs. Mary Stinson, of Indianapolis, and a brother living in Ireland. The funeral was held Monday morning, St. Francis of Rome church being thronged with sorrowing friends and relatives. Rev.
Father Thomas White was the celebrant of the requiem mass, and in his sermon spoke words of praise for his dead friend and his exemplary life.

FESTIVAL AT ST. WILLIAM'S.

Members of St. William's congregation have completed all arrangements for the Thanksgiving festival and oyster supper to be held in the school hall, thirteenth and Oak, next Monday afternoon and evening.
Every detail has been attended to and nothing has been left undone that would tend to make the affair a grand success. The men of the parish have entered into the spirit and have helped the women in their efforts to make the supper and turkey hunt the greatest of any ever held in that section of the city.
Lotto games will be played from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, after which an excellent oyster supper will be served. The main feature, of course, will be the turkey hunt from 7:30 to 10 o'clock, for which forty fine ones have been secured.

RECENT DEATHS.

Death invaded the home circle of Henry and Anna Bauer, Summit avenue, Sunday evening and snatched away their beloved infant daughter Florence, whose short life brought to them their greatest happiness. Her funeral was held Tuesday morning from St. Joseph's church. That an angel awaits them in heaven is consolation for the bereaved parents.

St. Paul's parish mourns the death of another of its most esteemed members, Mrs. Mary Geywitz, beloved wife of Adolph Geywitz, 432 East Kentucky street. She was a woman of exemplary life and character, one that might be well emulated. Funeral services were held Monday morning in St. Paul's church, when Father Thomas York paid tribute to her worth.

Sunday afternoon the Rev. Patrick Walsh, of the Sacred Heart church, conducted the last sad rites over the remains of Mrs. Nora Mc-Cormack Grant, widow of John P.
Grant, who died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret G.
O'Brien, 2027 Garland avenue. Her life had been an inspiration and benediction to her family and friends, and death, though not unexpected, came nevertheless as a great shock to all who knew her.

Miss Mollie McNamara, sixty years old and for many years with the Kaufman-Straus Company, was buried Wednesday morning from the Cathedral. Miss McNamara was a pious, long-suffering and devout Catholic woman, who will be missed very much by a host of friends. She is survived by a number of cousins, among them D. F. D. X. J. C. and C. C. Murphy. The interment was in New Albany by the side of her parents, the late Martin and Bridget McNamara.

His many friends were deeply grieved when they learned of the death on Saturday of Michael W.
Connelly, aged thirty-four, son of Mrs. Bridget Connelly, 907 Franklin street. The deceased was head book-keeper for the National Tobacco Company, and had been ill with pneumonia and apoplexy but three days. Besides his aged mother he leaves a brother, Joseph Connelly, and one sister. The funeral was held from St. John's church Tuesday morning, Father Schum-mann conducting the solemn obsequies.

Miss Maria Flynn passed peacefully away Sunday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. L.
Smith, 1613 West Market street.
For twenty-five years she had been an invalid, but she bore her sufferings with patience and fortitude and died a practical Christian. Three brothers, James J., John and Bartholomew Flynn, and three sisters, Mrs. Michael J. Rawley, Mrs.
G. L. Smith and Mrs. Dennis Cain, survive her. The funeral was held Tuesday morning from St. Patrick's church with requiem mass, attended by many mourning friends and relatives.

Death removed last Sunday a well known and estimable man in the person of John J. McNally, a former Collector of Internal Revenue and faithful member of the Sacred Heart church. Born in Ireland eighty-four years ago, he had lived in Louisville for more than half a century and had spent many years in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, respected and popular among his superiors and fellow workmen. Left to mourn his death

MISSIONARIES

Who Became Pioneers of Catholicity in Early Days of Kentucky.

Three Sulpicians Whose Careers Were Strangely Interwoven.

Benedict Joseph Flaget Selected For Second and Third Bishop.

THE FOUNDATION OF NAZARETH

By James A. Rooney, LL. D.
Among the missionaries given to America by the French revolution, when the colleges and seminaries were closed and priests and seminarians were dispersed and forced to fly for their lives, were three Sulpicians destined to exert a widespread influence on the church in the West. They were John Baptist Mary David and Benedict Joseph Flaget, priests, and Stephen Theodore Badin, a sub-deacon. They sailed together from Bordeaux in January, 1792, reaching Philadelphia on March 26, and Baltimore two days later, and though they separated for a time Providence brought them together in the missionary field of the West, where they became the pioneers of Catholicity in Kentucky, with careers so intertwined that one scarcely can be mentioned without reference to the others.

Mr. Badin completed his studies in Baltimore and was ordained by Bishop Carroll on May 25, 1793, being the first priest ordained within the limits of the thirteen original States. He was assigned to the Kentucky mission and at once started for the field of his future labors, going afoot as far as Pittsburgh.
He said his first mass in Kentucky in the home of Denis McCarthy, near Lexington, where fifty years later, on May 25, 1843, he celebrated the golden jubilee of his priesthood. Making his headquarters at White Sulphur, near Lexington, for four years he was the pioneer missionary of that section of country. In 1806 Father Charles Nierickx, later the founder of the Sisters of Loretto, came to share his burden, and together they lived and wrought at St. Stephen's, Pottinger's creek. On the arrival of Bishop Flaget, Father Badin was his zealous collaborer for many years. Ten years after celebrating his golden jubilee he passed to the reward of his labors in Cincinnati, April 21, 1853.

Father Flaget had preceded Father Badin as a missionary to the West, for he arrived at Vincennes, Ind., December 21, 1792, being sent there by Bishop Carroll as a missionary to the Indians. Later he was recalled to take a professorship in Georgetown College, and when the see of Bardonia was created, April 8, 1808, he was named as its first Bishop and was consecrated November 4, 1810. He did not reach his see until June 9, 1811.

All this time Father David was exercising his zeal in the Maryland missions. He was the first pastor of Brynstown, where his first baptismal record was made in 1793.
After a time at Georgetown and at St. Mary's, Baltimore, acting also as spiritual director of Mother Seton's Sisters at Emmitsburg, he was invited by his old friend, Bishop Flaget, to go to Bardonia to found a diocesan seminary and to institute the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, and in these two apostolic duties he found his life work. Accompanied by the Bishop and several ecclesiastics, one of whom, Guy Ignatius Chabrat, afterward succeeded him as Bishop Flaget's coadjutor, the party reached Bardonia, June 9, 1811. Father David founded the seminary on the farm of St. Thomas, near Bardonia, in a log house, and he lived to see forty-seven of his students ordained as priests, four of whom were destined to wear the miter, namely Guy Ignatius Chabrat, Ignatius A. Reynolds, of Charlottesville; John McGill, of Richmond, and Martin John Spalding, of Louisville, later Archbishop of Baltimore. Another of his "boys" was Elisha John Durbin, one of the early priests of Kentucky, who after laboring for sixty years died at Shelbyville in 1885.

When Father David felt the need of some devoted religious women to instruct children, visit the sick and the poor and assist in the care of the seminary, Teresa Carrioco, Catharine Spalding and Harriet Gardiner, zealous and sturdy daughters of pioneer settlers, were the first to offer themselves for the work. He housed them in a log cabin which he called "Nazareth," and ten years later they moved to a location north of Bardonia and took possession of the house of a Presbyterian minister, Father David offering the first mass in what had been the minister's study. Here the Sisters labored under his direction, little dreaming that Nazareth would ever develop into its present magnificent proportions.

What the Club Plan Is And What It Means to You

The Club Plan is an extended payment plan instituted purely and simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent. of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be 75c.

The membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

You are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Any further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the fifth floor.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 4 meets next Monday evening at Bertrand Hall, Jersey City and Hudson county have twenty-five divisions. Cold weather has increased the attendance at division meetings. Division 3 expects a large attendance at their euchre and lotto next Wednesday evening.

Frequent reunions would awaken new interest in the divisions and the attendance at meetings would increase.

Mrs. Lowery, of Fort Crook, entertained the South Omaha Ladies' Auxiliary at a banquet Wednesday evening.

Michael Sheehan, a prominent member of the order, won his race for Sheriff of San Mateo county, California.

There will be no meeting of Division 1 next Thursday night, as members will want to spend Thanksgiving at home.

The members of Division 4 are anxious for an initiation in the newly fitted Bertrand Hall, which has shower baths, ante rooms, etc.

The genial face of Martin Cusick was sadly missed at the housewarming of Division 1. All hope it will not be long until he recovers from his illness.

From the Leader we note great activity in Hibernian circles in San Francisco. Not a week goes by without something doing by either division or auxiliary.

State President M. J. O'Connor, of Akron, is receiving encouraging letters from his county members, which indicate a substantial increase in Ohio's membership by the end of the year.

Division 2 will meet the first Thursday in December, when the annual election of officers will take place. Friends of Joe Lynch and John Keane are urging them for the Presidency.

Division 1 will hold its annual election of officers on Thursday, December 10, the only meeting to be held that month. This is owing to the fact that the night for the second meeting will be Christmas eve.

Among the old guard at the housewarming of Division 1 were Tom Lynch, John Hession, Joe Lynch, Tim Sullivan, Edward Clancy, James Barry, David O'Connell, John Hennessy and others, for whom there was a hearty welcome.

Division 2 is arranging for a reunion feast and smoker at its hall, Thirteenth and Oak streets, on Thursday, December 3, and extends a cordial invitation to the other divisions to be present as guests. This is the preliminary to an active membership campaign.

The County Board will have an open meeting tomorrow night in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium at Columbus, Ohio. P. H. O'Donnell, one of the leading lawyers of Illinois and President of the Irish Choral Society of Chicago, will be the principal speaker.

IRISH CHAMPION WINS.

The opening wrestling bout of the First Regiment Athletic Association last Tuesday evening between Pat Connolly, the British Isles champion, and Yankee Rogers, the champion of New England, proved to be the fastest held here since wrestling was revived, although both men were over 200 pounds in weight, Connolly weighing 205 and Rogers 225. Heretofore the tactics between the large men have consisted of many attempts at toe holds, which do not furnish enough action, but Connolly and Rogers were busy every second, and although both were guilty of foul tactics many pin-head spectators hooted and hissed Connolly alone, possibly because he was an Irishman, and this class delights in insulting an Irishman behind his back or in the dark. However, Connolly won in two straight falls, and many critics believe that Manager Buechel could stage a great drawing card by matching him with Hussane.

WILL GET BUSY.

With the large attendance and interest manifested at Friday night's meeting of the Central Committee, it was evident that old-time interest was awakening in the local ranks of the Catholic Knights of America and that all the branches will soon be busy with organization work. President Ben Kruse occupied the chair and the reports of Secretary Henry Schulten and Treasurer Charles Falk were cause for enthusiasm. The committee decided to lend its assistance toward the Kentucky exhibit at the Panama Exposition and the building for that purpose. Gen. Michael Reichert delivered an address that stirred the delegates and brought assurances of assistance from the State officers who were present. He also announced that next year the Uniform Rank of Kentucky and Indiana would have an encampment. Capt. Oscar Maier announced that the Catholic Knights' directory would soon be in the hands of the printer and ready for distribution early in the new year. President Kruse called attention to the annual election of officers, to be held at the December meeting, which should bring out another large attendance.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL'S. The St. Vincent de Paul parish, Shelby and Oak, will give its annual Thanksgiving festival on the eve of Thanksgiving day as well as on Thanksgiving day, afternoon and evening, in the basement of its school, for the benefit of the Sisters' new home now in course of erection. Lotto with turkey raffle will take place on Thanksgiving eve. On Thanksgiving day, afternoon and evening, a euchre and lotto party will be given, when many handsome prizes will be awarded. Various refreshments and amusements are abundantly provided for. Supper will be served on Thanksgiving day from 5 to 9 p. m.

To Relieve Suffering Humanity. Since about six years I did not know what a good night's rest was. I would retire worn out, my home cares were very heavy and had no one to help me shoulder the burden. This thought near drove me frantic and my health was breaking down, but at this writing I found Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and new feel that I am myself again. That oppressive feeling on my brain disappeared like magic after the first dose of Tonic and refreshing sleep returned and also my health, for which I hope that God will spare the Tonic long to relieve suffering humanity.

Mrs. McMahon. Mr. F. Hetta, of Beaufort, Va., says that Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic helped him a great deal from sleeplessness which troubled him since the last two or three years.
